CROYDON STREET ART Friday 25 April 2025

Dear Croydon Fellowship Member,

We will take a stroll round Croydon town centre to have a look at the street art. This is something that is always changing as old buildings get knocked down and new ones go up. Perhaps we'll be the first to see a new Banksy!!

We'll have a look round the Queen's Garden area. As well as containing some interesting murals, the Garden is interesting itself. Did you know there used to be another railway station there? We will then head for the High Street to see some long lasting murals before coming back round via the steel sculptures of three famous people. Can you guess who? They all once lived in Croydon. Then we'll see more art in the Surrey Street area where there is a fruit and veg market (should you want to do some shopping). Lastly, we'll look at some more modern work along North End and in the Whitgift Centre.

It should take about 1.5 hours and it's all accessible.

After the walk you may wish to stay in Croydon for a spot of lunch or you can head back to the Station.
